A black mannequin torso is shown from the waist up, wearing a red and white patterned shoulder bag. The bag features a repeating geometric pattern of red and white zig-zag shapes. It has three pockets: two on the front and one on the side. The top pocket is a small rectangular flap, and the two larger front pockets are rectangular with black zippers. The bag is worn over the mannequin's right shoulder and hangs down to the waist. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
